About University:

Anna University was established in September 1978 as a unitary type of technical university amalgamating four institutions: the College of Engineering Guindy, the A C College of Technology, the Madras Institute of Technology and the School of Architecture and Planning. All these four institutions each with a long history and distinct characteristics of their own, provided a fertile reservoir of resources from which the nascent university has been formed and grown to its present stature.

The College of Engineering Guindy, the main campus of the University, is one of the oldest technical institutions in India. Its origin dates back to 1794, which was established as a Survey School by East India Company. The Survey School was first expanded into a Civil Engineering School in 1858 and then upgraded into a college in 1859. The University offers 45 Under-Graduate and 108 Post-Graduate Programmes along with M. Phil, M.S. (By Research) and Ph.D. Programmes.

The University receives grants from the state and central governments, national and international agencies, and industrial houses. It has an extensive link with Indian industries, national research laboratories and international universities. This enables the university to keep with new development and emerging technologies.

About Department:

The Department of Electronics and Communication Engineering is one of the University Departments in the College of Engineering Guindy, Anna University, Chennai with highly qualified faculty and the state of the art laboratories. The Department aims at creating quality engineers with sound technical knowledge and awareness of the latest advancements in existing and emerging technologies.

The Department has the distinction of being the first in India to start undergraduate programme in Telecommunication System Engineering in the year 1945. The first Post-Graduate programme in Communication Systems was introduced in 1963 and subsequently PG programmes in Applied Electronics, Bio-Medical Engineering, Optical Communication, Medical Electronics and VLSI Design were introduced.

The Department of Electronics and Communication Engineering has respectable status among the major recruiters in India. The excellent performance of its students across the industry has enabled the department to maintain its strong and brand image. The extremely well-qualified and highly knowledgeable faculty adds value to the department and its students.

The Department of ECE is the leading department for University with Potential for Excellence in Biomedical Engineering and Instrumentation.
